A Note:

*With adapted lines from Considering Matthew Shepherd, composed by Craig Hella Johnson*

Thank you. For alleviating our anxieties, encouraging our interests, and allowing us to pursue music. Music-making is inherently vulnerable, time-consuming, and personally revealing, and studying it only amplifies those features. The stability and encouragement you’ve provided has been so needed in these past four years and, despite all our turbulence, we’ve even managed to enjoy a few of them. If tonight is any testament, we’ve not only deepened our love for music, but also found a great community and a place to share our voices. Thanks for being part of tonight and so many more like it throughout the years.

P.S. If any of you know of any music jobs opening up, let us know.

Emma, Tarryn, Jennilee, Tori, Carlie, Leslie, Sidney, Dennis, Grant, Marc, Tom, David, and Harrison
