Dear Students,

I am writing to you today with a heartfelt message of support and encouragement. As the Director and Professor of the Hugh Hodgson School of Music, I have seen firsthand the incredible talent and dedication of our students. Your hard work and perseverance have not gone unnoticed, and I am proud of what you have accomplished.

Every year, scholarships and graduate assistantships funded by your donations and gifts make it possible for students to pursue their education at the University of Georgia. Ticket sales and donations to the Thursday Scholarship Fund this year, so we may continue to support our students and make it possible for students to pursue their education.

Please consider a tax-deductible gift to the Thursday Scholarship Fund. Gifts of all amounts are greatly appreciated. However, annual giving at the $1,000 level and higher provides membership in the Director’s Society and exclusive access to events throughout the academic year.

If you would like to make a gift, please contact Sara Emery at semery@uga.edu or 706.542.4232. Your generosity is sincerely appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dan Mcomb
Director and President of the Hugh Hodgson School of Music
