About the Artist

Evgeny Rivkin

Evgeny Rivkin was born in Nizhny Novgorod, Russia. He has won several awards for his playing, including top prizes in the Bavarian Radio Music Competition in Munich, VI International Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow, and the U.S.S.R. National Piano Competition in St. Petersburg. In 1998, he won the First prize in the International McMahon Piano Competition held in Oklahoma. Rivkin came to the University of Georgia in 1995 as Professor of Piano at the School of Music; before coming to UGA, he was a Professor of Piano at the Latvian Academy of Music in Riga, Latvia. In addition to CD recordings and presenting master classes worldwide, Rivkin continues to perform internationally as a soloist and chamber musician.

The Thursday Scholarship Series

The Hugh Hodgson School of Music and the Hugh Hodgson Concert Hall are named in honor of native Athenian and UGA graduate Hugh Leslie Hodgson. In 1928, Hodgson became the University's first music professor and first chairman of the Department of Music. He retired from the University in 1960.

The Thursday Scholarship Series began in 1980 and continues the tradition of "Music Appreciation Programs" started by Hugh Hodgson in the 1930s. Proceeds from these concerts are the primary source of funds for School of Music scholarships.
